

Business of Art Center

CALL FOR STUDENT ARTISTS

The Business of Art Center is seeking high school student artists to participate in WUNDERKIND 2012—an acclaimed juried exhibition and educational program showcasing extraordinary work by 12-15 artists from the Pikes Peak region.

Completed applications are due at the Business of Art Center on or before:
Saturday February 18th, 2012-Please drop of during business hours
Tuesday-Saturday 11am-6pm. Notification of acceptance Feb. 25th.

Juniors and Seniors are eligible. Applicants need not be enrolled in an art class.

A complete Wunderkind 2012 application will include:

Completed Application Form, A portfolio of work by the artist: on CD/DVD, or as print outs - (no original work), An artist's statement, A letter of recommendation from a teacher, and A letter of permission from parent or guardian.

(Application Forms are available from art teachers or from the BAC website: www.thebac.org)

Wunderkind 2012 Opening Reception
Friday April 6th, 2012 5-8pm Hagnauer Gallery
Gallery talk April 21st, Exhibit closes May 5th

Prior to the exhibition, accepted artists will attend workshops that introduce participants to several aspects of professional gallery operations and exhibition preparation procedures. (Meetings every Tuesday starting 2/28 4:30-5:30pm). Installation of exhibit is from 4/1-4/5 in the evenings. While preparing for Wunderkind 2012 a critique forum for participants will be established to discuss artwork-in-progress. Attendance for all scheduled events is essential.